

2014 Boo Camp

Table of Contents

Location..... 2

Band and Caller 2

Lodging and Food..... 3

What to Bring..... 3

Location

Boo Camp is held at Hummingbird Music Camp in the Jemez Mountains, four miles north of Jemez Springs on state highway NM4. The camp elevation is 6,800 feet with nighttime temperatures in the mid to low 40s.

We will dance in the Greenhouse on the Main (South) Campus and dine in the main dining hall directly across the parking lot.

For more information about Hummingbird Music Camp visit www.hummingbirdmusiccamp.org.

Driving directions (see additional map below):

From Interstate 25, use Exit 242 at Bernalillo/Placitas, and take HWY 550 west. Follow 550 for just over 23 miles, to San Ysidro.

In San Ysidro, turn right onto NM-4, and proceed northeasterly for 22.2 miles, passing Jemez Pueblo and the village of Jemez Springs.

Hummingbird Music Camp is 4 miles north of Jemez Springs, between mile marker 21 and 22.

Turn right onto Hummingbird Dr/Hummingbird Ln.

104 Hummingbird Lane, Jemez Springs, NM 87025

Band and Caller

This year's band is Steam! from Colorado and Arizona

- featuring Dave Firestine, Claire Zucker, Robert Rosenberg, and Alice Boyle

Caller Merri Rudd will keep everyone moving, with help from the Albuquerque Callers' Collective!

Lodging and Food

Sleeping arrangements — Several room options are available this year: private, semi-private, and bunk-house. Camping spots are available in wooded or grassy areas.

Food Service — Meals will be in the main dining hall a short walk from the dorms. Meals will include vegetarian and non-vegetarian selections.

Snacks and Pot Luck — Yes, please! Bring a main course, salad/vegetable, or dessert for the pot luck Friday evening and a snack item, preferably natural and/or homemade for later in the weekend.

What to Bring

- Separate dance and street shoes
- Costumes for Boo Ball
- Your own linens (unless you are in a cabin), including pillows, blankets (or sleeping bags) and towels (For October nights, you may want to bring extra blankets.)
- Musical instruments
- Song books
- Money for auction tickets
- Pumpkins to decorate
- Swim suits for the hot springs

Also useful:

- Tote bag
- Camera
- Sunscreen
- Insect repellent
- Alarm clock
- Toiletries
- Ear plugs
- Your own unbreakable mug or water bottle
- Auction Items: Bring special music and dance related items for the Auction.
- Please note: No Pets — Furry friends are not permitted.