

Boo Camp 2016 General Information

NM FolkMADS invites dancers and musicians to spend the Halloween weekend in the beautiful Jemez Mountains at Hummingbird Camp for dancing, singing and jamming. Dance (contras and more) to the music of THE THRIFTERS and THE ADOBE BROS, to dances called by NORALYN PARSONS and ERIK ERHARDT. Camp starts with registration Friday at 4:30pm in the Greenhouse, potluck dinner in the dining hall at 6:30pm and dancing at 8pm. Camp ends after lunch Sunday.

Our camp is being held on the SOUTH CAMPUS. The dance hall (the Greenhouse) is directly across from the dining hall.

LODGING OPTIONS: there are four options for lodging plus camping.

Due to limited number of all indoor options except the bunkhouse, please check with the registrar (Angela Welford, awelford1017@gmail.com) for availability of your choice.

CABINS: Newly remodeled motel-style rooms with en suite bath. Amenities include mini-fridge, coffee maker, linens and towels. 7 cabins available, 2 sleep 4 (double bed plus twin bunk), 5 sleep 2 (double bed or twins). No parking in front of cabins. Preference given to two (or more) people signing up together.

SEMI-PRIVATE: Two rooms, each with 2 twin beds, co-joined by a bathroom. Amenities include sink in the room and chairs. Linens and towels not included. 4 rooms available on the ground floor in the Beehive Bunkhouse. Preference given to two people signing up together.

PRIVATE: One twin bed in a private room, share common bathroom. Linens and towels not included. Three rooms available, two are located in the Greenhouse (dance hall), one is upstairs in the Beehive Bunkhouse.

BUNKHOUSE: Two rooms, each with 11-12 bunk-beds and a few single beds, sharing common bathroom. One of the rooms has an alcove, allowing for some privacy (arrive early to nab that area!) Note that one-nighters and a-la-carte can only be housed in the bunkhouse.

CAMPING: There are 4-6 walk-in tent sites along the river and a couple of shaded spots for RV type campers beyond the Beehive Bunkhouse. RV camping is also available just north of the Greenhouse. No hookups. Bathrooms/showers available in the Greenhouse (dance hall).

VOLUNTEERS--VOLUNTEERS--VOLUNTEERS

Our camp depends on the generosity of attendees willingness to help make the camp more fun for all! Everyone is asked to sign up for one chore during the weekend. If you are able to come early (by 2-3pm Friday) or stay late (after lunch for an hour or so Sunday), we could use your help re-locating the bunk beds and decorating in the dance hall. Please contact Angela or Marj (contact information on reverse) for more details.

NOTE ABOUT FOOD: NO CATERING TO SPECIAL DIETS. Vegetarian option available at all meals.

FINANCIAL AID POSITIONS: We have 5 positions available for those who needs financial assistance to attend camp, first-come first-serve. The positions are: 2 snack managers, 2 facility managers (need to arrive early and stay late) and raffle manager. Contact registrar for more information.
